Re: United States v. Brent Borland, 18 Cr. 487 (KPF)

Dear Judge Failla,

On May 16, 2018, Magistrate Judge Moses released Mr. Borland on a $2 million bond, secured by property and the signatures of suretors. As part of his conditions of release, Mr. Borland's travel was limited to the Eastern and Southern Districts of New York. More recently, Mr. Borland's travel restrictions were expanded to include the Southern District of Florida to permit him to move his residence to that district. To date, Mr. Borland has been fully compliant with all conditions of his bond.

I write, with the consent of the government and Pretrial Services, to respectfully request the Court to permit Mr. Borland to travel from the Southern District of Florida to San Antonio, Texas on February 23, 2021, and to return on February 25, 2021. Mr. Borland would like to visit a close friend there who is about to undergo a serious medical procedure. As noted, neither the government nor Pretrial Services object to this request. If granted, Mr. Borland will keep Pretrial Services apprised of the details of his travel plans, including flight information and hotel accommodations.

Thank you for your consideration.

Respectfully,

/s/

Florian Miedel
Attorney for Brent Borland

Application GRANTED.
